

We live packaging

The SÜDPACK packaging group is headquartered in Ochsenhausen, Baden-Württemberg, Germany. The family business was founded in 1964 by Alfred Remmele and now has over 22 sales branches and locations. In total, the group now employs around 950 employees.

SÜDPACK Verpackungen GmbH & Co. KG was one of the first companies to offer resealable films in the area of self-service packaging. The production of flexible plastic composites, vacuum bags, co-extruded flexible and rigid films and printing films in flexoprint and rotogravure process have been part of the core competencies of the group for years.

For our customers, we are first-choice partners for quality and innovative packaging. Starting from our high-performance product range, we meet the challenges of the packaging market and beyond that create new, creative packaging solutions with permanent development.
